6. The men wear black shoulder boards bordered in red. They belong to the classes of 1930 to 1932 and 70 percent of them are Czechs.
7. During the summer of 1953 reservists were taken in for refresher training from classes up to that of 1926. There was also a course for reserve officers. The courses were in charge of a major. A special group to watch the reservists was organized by the political officer. Each of the three courses had 120 to 130 members and was divided into four platoons. These formations did not have their own weapons, but used those of the regular batteries as needed. They included officers from other arms, who were required to take a basic AA course.
8. During the first month all these reservists took basic infantry training.
9. The regiment is motorized, having eight armored cars, 21 trucks, and 16 Skoda prime movers.
